

go from our house to Mrs. Wells's in Brighton Street. She proposes to remain in this part of the country through the month.

I am afraid that Mrs. Garrison is too much an invalid for us to hope to see her with you. It would of course give us great pleasure to do so. They that she will excuse the informality of this invitation.

I am very truly and respectfully yours

To W. R. Garrison.

Dear Sir -

Mary of Bristol, England Miss Carpenter, whose arrival by the steamer you may have noticed, is spending a few days with my sisters, and they beg me to say that it will give us great pleasure if you can come over and see her at Thulon on Saturday. We take tea at Folkestone and have invited Mr and Mrs. John Forbes and Mr and Mrs.
James Barnard to meet her and you.

This Carpenter will remain in Thulon until Monday when she will
